Dear Madam

Yes it is the same for provisional passports as long as the provisional passport is valid at least for 6 months from the date of the travel.

Dear Mrs. Paula M. Coto Ramirez,

First of all, thank you for your response.

Following the answer you gave us, we'd like to clarify our question and to ask whether Israeli citizens, holding Israeli provisional passports are also exempted of visa requirement to enter Costa Rica for a stay of up to 3 months, as the holders of Israeli ordinary passports are.

To emphasize, the main question is concerning the visa requirement for the holders of Israeli provisional passports.

Thanks in advance,
Sincerely,
