Dear Mr. Gervits,

The Ministry refers to your letter dated 12th November, 2012 in which you requested information on the right of Israeli Nationals to travel to Grenada for short periods without requiring an entry visa.

The Ministry hereby informs that the Immigration and Passport Department has indicated that there are no objection to holders of authentic Israeli Provisional Passports entering Grenada, given that it will be accepted in countries en-route.

Please be guided accordingly.

Respectfully,

Maureen Baptiste (Ms.)
PERMANENT SECRETARY (Ag.)
