Subject: RE: Entering Republic of Seychelles Islands by Israeli citizens

Dear Mr. Gervits,

A visa is not required prior to entry into Seychelles regardless of nationality the person may hold.

A valid passport or other travel documents recognized by Seychelles are required for entry into Seychelles. The passport must be valid for the period of the intended stay until arrival back in holder's country of origin/residence with an extra validity of six months prior to expiry.

A short stay visitor's permit is issued on arrival in Seychelles to a person who comes for the purpose of holiday, pleasure, business, visit friends or family and who -

- a) is not a prohibited immigrant; and
- b) is not holder of a valid permit which entitles that holder to reside in Seychelles.
- c) holds a valid return or onward ticket for duration of visit;
- d) has confirmed accommodation;
- e) has sufficient funds for duration of the stay. (Minimum of US$ 150.00 or equivalent per day.

In this case as the provisional passport is an official document issued by the government of Israel, then the person can use it to travel to Seychelles provided that it has a minimum of six months validity.

Best regards,

Ian Madeleine (Mr)
